PRESS RELEASE

Visit with Author Kimberley Jochl

Village of Sugar Mountain, North Carolina, Tuesday, April 25, 2017 – An eclectic assortment of organizations will showcase candid, new author, Kimberley Jochl's recently published books Fly Baby: The Story of an American Girl, and The Aviatrix: Fly Like a Girl.

On April 28 Charlotte's WBTV will host a live segment with Kim. The following day join Kim and several local authors during the Barnes & Noble Town Square at Biltmore Park Backyard Writers Event. And, a literary landmark since the 1960's, The Bookstore in Lenox, Massachusetts will host her on May 13. The fun, family-owned and operated, regionally known icon, the Mast General Store, will hold a book signing at its downtown Boone, North Carolina location on May 27 and again on July 2 at its original and historic, rural location in Valle Crucis, North Carolina. On June 6 Kim will entertain the members of the Rotary Club of Bristol, VA/TN. On August 9 she will speak at Eastern America's highest club, Beech Mountain Club's, Lunch and Learn Series. Finally, on November 1, Kim will attend a book signing at the bookstore of her alma mater, Appalachian State University.

Exact times and locations for each appearance and book signing can be found at kimberleyjochl.com/news.

In the meantime, for an out-of-the-box literary experience, read Fly Baby: The Story of an American Girl and The Aviatrice: Fly Like a Girl. Aircraft Spruce and Pilot Shop carry The Aviatrice. Both non-fiction narratives are available from Barnes & Noble and Amazon. You'll also find them at Alpine Ski Center, Footsloggers, Fred's General Mercantile, Reid's Café, Tri-City Aviation, Elizabethton Municipal Airport, Ski Country Sports, Grandfather Mountain Nature Museum, Artwalk, Sugar Mountain Sports, Boston Harbor Hotel, The Bookstore, Lenox, Massachusetts, Mast General Store, Harvard Bookstore, Red Lion Inn Gift Shop, Jiminy Peak Ski Area, Appalachian State University Bookstore, Barnes & Noble Biltmore Park at Town Square, Barnes & Noble Asheville Mall, and several other east coast locations.
